- The Army Donations Program Office is unable to notify you when the rifles will be shipped or delivered as the rifles are shipped from the Civilian Marksmanship Program.
- If a shipping address is not open during normal business hours, or if the rifles are not signed for – they will be returned to the Civilian Marksmanship Program at the Organization's expense.
- Please contact the Army Donations Program Office when you have received your new/replacement rifles. A Donation Specialist will work with you on updating your inventory records and assist with the return of older/non-functioning rifles.
